SETS TERRORIST'S TRIAL.

LOS ANGELES. November 30.-The trial of Carl Riedelbach, who threatened to dynamite the police station and its occupants, was set for December 4 by Judge Willis of the criminal department of the superior court today.

Riedelbach, who previously had de-clared he was "capable of conducting his own case," told Judge Willis today that he had neither an attorney nor the money to employ one, so the court appointed one to defend him.

ARMS CASE APPEALED. Government Wants Strict Ban on

Exportation Into Mexico.

In order to preserve much of the effectiveness of the congressional resolution and presidential proclamation against the exportation of arms into Mexico, the government, has brought to the Supreme Court of the United States an appeal from the Chavez and Mesa cases of El Paso. Tex.

Chaves and Mesa were indicted on charges of transferring arms from one part of El Paso to another part with intent to remove them into Mexico. Judge Maxey of the United States district court for western Texas annulled the indictments as not stating offenses against the law on the ground that there had been no exportation. The government takes the position that such a decision seriously cripples the enforcement of the resolution and proclamation.

country, William Knowles Cooper, gen-Young Men's Christian Association, has the inaugural exercises.

Chairman Gans of the committee last night stated that if the inauguration should be held in April, in accordance with the wishes of President-to-be Wilson, plans for a week of festivities at the later date would be considered. On the assumption that the customary inaugural ceremonies will occur Tues-day, March 4, Mr. Cooper has suggested that the five days succeeding that date be utilized for the purpose of a national celebration. He proposes that Wednesday, March 5, be designated as National Arts day, Thursday as National Resources day, Friday as National Defense day Saturday as National Defense day Saturday as National Defense fense day, Saturday as National Fra-ternities and Recreation day and Sunday as national day of worship.

Seeks Co-Operation.

Not only has Mr. Cooper written to the joint publicity committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Retail Merchants' Association, which, under the chairmanship of Isaac Gans, is arranging for "inauguration week," but he also has brought the desirability of arranging for such a celebration as he proposes to the atten-tion of District Commissioner Rudolph Capt.
